

BEAUMONT RADIO CONTROL CLUB CONSTITUTION

Article I Organization

- Section A. This organization shall be known as the Beaumont Radio Control Club. It shall be located in Beaumont, Texas.
- Section B. The purpose of this organization shall be to promote interest in radio controlled model aircraft, to provide instruction in the flying of such models, and to provide a safe and convenient place for such activities. Its members are required to pledge to observe the principles of safety and good sportsmanship at all times, as provided hereinafter in its Field Rules and Safety Rules.

Article II Membership

- Section A. Members shall be divided into the following categories:
 1. Junior Members – Anyone less than 19 years of age.
 2. Open Members – Anyone 19 years of age or older.
 3. Life Time Member – A non-dues paying member who through his service contribution and efforts over the years to the club is granted flying privileges and who may participate in all club functions including becoming a club Officer. (An Open Club Member becomes a Life Time Member after his nomination by a member of the club, announcement of his nomination in the club newsletter, and approval by a 2/3's majority vote of a quorum in favor at the next monthly club meeting following such announcement)
- Section B. All members shall have the right to vote during club meetings.
- Section C. An applicant for membership must:
 1. Be a current member of the Academy of Model Aeronautics, read the Club Constitution, Field Rules and Safety Rules, and by signing the membership application agrees to at all times abide by these and future rules adopted by the club as outlined herein.

2. Pay 12 months dues in advance, or if joining after July 1st, pay of the annual dues in effect at the time for the rest of the year. Proration of dues does not apply to members who were current members the year preceding application for membership.
- Section D. To maintain club membership, members must:
 1. Pay all dues and assessments by the February Club Meeting of each year or be exempted through acceptance in a Non Dues paying service agreement.
 2. Abide by all Rules included or referred to herein and all Field Rules and Safety Rules attached as well as future rules adopted in the manner prescribed in Article , Section .

Article III Meetings and attendance

- Section A. General meetings will be held the 3rd Monday of each month at the time and place specified at the previous meeting, or otherwise arranged in advance.
- Section B. Special meetings may be called by the President or the Vice President in his absence at his discretion or when requested to do so by at least 20% of the members in good standing.
- Section C. A quorum shall consist of at least 20% of the total members in good standing. However, upon the vote of 75% of those present, the President or the Vice President in his absence may declare a quorum for the purpose of that meeting only.
- Section D. Business of the club will be conducted by the Officers of the Club.
 1. Only items listed on the agenda will be considered at the general meeting during the new business portion of the meeting.
 2. All proposals requested by members must be submitted to an Officer of the club in writing as soon as possible after the general meeting so they can be acted on and included on the agenda for the next general meeting.
 3. All valid proposals will be included on the agenda for the next regular meeting and submitted in the form of a motion to the general membership for discussion, amendment if necessary, and a vote of approval. Valid proposals will include those items that serve to further the interest of the club now and in the future and should include the following items with their submission:

- a. Description of the proposal.
 - b. Intent or purpose of the proposal.
 - c. Estimated cost if any.
4. Proposals for discussions, film workshops, etc. at each general meeting are highly recommended and a request for time to include such items in Our general meetings should be submitted to an Officer of the club so they can be included on the next general meeting agenda. Proposals should include:
- a. Description of the topic.
 - b. Estimated time required for presentation and discussion.

The intent of the above format is to remove time-consuming discussions from the general meetings, to provide an arena to further our interest in model aviation, which will serve our common interests, to improve our knowledge, bring in new members, and insure our success in the future.

- Section E. The order of business at the general meeting will be:
 1. Call to order
 2. Reading of the minutes (a majority vote to read or not to read the minutes shall prevail)
 3. Certification of a quorum (20% of membership)
 4. Treasurer's report
 5. Committee reports
 6. Announcements
 7. Old business
 8. New business per agenda
 9. Agenda proposals
 10. Adjournment
 11. Program

Article IV Dues and assessments

- Section A. The amount of dues shall be decided annually, after preparation of the annual budget by the club Officers and approval of the budget by vote of the general membership held on the second meeting following club elections.
- Section B. Members who do not pay their dues by the deadline set in Article II Section D. Sub I will be dropped from the membership. Reinstatement will require the completion of Article II, Section C.
- Section C. Special assessments may be made by a 2/3 vote of a quorum as defined in Article III, Section B.

Article V Officers, Membership Review Board, and Committees

- Section A. The Officers of this club shall consist of a President, Vice-president, Secretary, Treasurer, and Editor of the club newsletter. The club Officers will conduct the business of the club. The club Officers will have the authority and be expected to run the club business in a fair, moral, and legal manner. The Officers will insure that the membership will have a safe and well-maintained field to fly R/C aircraft on. The Officers will be expected to abide by and enforce the club Constitution laws, Field Rules, Safety Rules, and to operate the club within the proposed annual budget that was voted on by the general membership. Terms for Officers will commence January 1st, of a given year and end December 31st of that same year. Duties shall be as follows:

1. President - Senior officer and shall preside at all club meetings and functions. The President shall have the power to appoint all committees, convene special meetings of the club as provided in Article III Section B, and assure that the club AMA Charter are maintained on a current basis. He will serve as a member of the club Review Board who is committed to assure all members are in compliance with the Constitution, Field Rules and Safety Rules, and if not. to enforce same by applying rules established in Article V, Section C below.

Vice-president - Shall assume the duties of any club officer in their absence, and shall serve as the chairman of the Field committee. He will serve as a member of the Review Board.

Secretary - Shall keep an accurate record of club attendance and proceedings in writing. The secretary shall also be responsible for all club correspondence and the publicity for club sponsored events. The secretary shall supervise all club elections and voting. He will serve as a member of the Review Board.

4. Treasurer - Shall be responsible for the collecting, recording, and depositing all dues, fees, and assessments. He shall provide an annual budget for the club operating expenses. He shall prepare and sign all club checks for disbursement of club funds up to $500.00 with his signature alone. Two signatures by club Officers will be required on all checks greater than $500.00. He shall verify that all expenditures are pre-approved, valid, and conform to the annual budget or otherwise approved by the membership. The treasurer shall make a financial report to the membership at each general meeting, and is responsible for notifying members who are delinquent in dues, fees, or assessments as defined in Article IV, Section B. He will serve as a member of the Review Board.

5. Editor. Shall be appointed by the President and shall be responsible for publishing the club newsletter.

- Section B. Nominations for Officers and the election of all club officers shall take place at the first general meeting in November.

The new officers shall assume their duties at the first general meeting in January.

- Section C. The Membership Review Board will consist of all club Officers and a review committee consisting of three open members selected and appointed by the club membership. The Review Board will meet as required to address reports of violations of the Constitution, Field Rules, or Safety Rules. The Review Board will enforce the application of penalties set forth below in the best interest of all members and the club. The findings of the Review Board will be presented to the general membership for assessment of penalty or corrective action.

Definition:

Club rules include all items listed or referred to herein, the club Field Rules, Safety Rules, AMA Safety Rules, and Terms of our lease with the County Drainage District #6.

A violation of club rules can be:

1. An inadvertent violation brought about by accidental or unusual circumstances or lack of experience, equipment failure, radio interference or other such reasons.
2. A willful violation is brought about by the total disregard of club rules. A copy of all rules will be provided to all members and it will be a condition of membership that each member read and verify that he/she understands and agrees with and pledges to abide by these rules by signing the club membership application.
3. Handling rules violations:

Any member observing a violation of club rules should, in the case of an inadvertent violation, make the violator aware of his violation so he/she can correct such actions in the future. Repeated inadvertent violations should be brought to the attention of the Review Board for investigation and correction, such as inspection of the violator's equipment, more flight Training, etc. The Review Board will consider three inadvertent violations reported to the Review Board the same as one willful violation.

4. Any member observing a willful violation of the rules should immediately notify the violator of his observation. Should the violator continue or repeat the willful violation of that rule or any other rule, the observer should complete a report on the form provided, which will include his name, names of the witnesses, the date and time of the violation, the violators name, and the nature and circumstances of the violation, and forward the completed form to an Officer of the club. The Review Board, after investigation of the reported violations, will determine to the best of its ability if the claim is valid, not valid, or cannot be substantiated beyond a reasonable doubt.
5. If a claim is valid, and after an affirmative vote by the membership, the violator will be excluded from enjoying the benefits of club membership as prescribed below, and he/she will relinquish said benefits willingly without recourse or any action being taken against the club, it's Officers, members, or property. Dues will not be refunded.
6. Unfounded false claims, perpetration's of violations as vendettas, claims of violations for the purpose of harassment, are considered a serious violation of the club rules, and if proven, the perpetrator will be excluded from enjoying the benefits of club membership as prescribed below, and he/she will relinquish said benefits willingly without recourse or any action being taken against the club, it's Officers, members, or property. Dues will not be refunded
7. If a claim is not valid or cannot be substantiated beyond a reasonable doubt the claim will be dropped and removed from the records and the parties notified of such action.
8. Penalties for willful violation or repeated unwillful violations of club rules where the Review Board and membership finds that a violation has in fact occurred are as follows:
 - a. First time occurrences will result in a severe reprimand with said violations being published in the club newsletter to serve as a warning that violations will not be tolerated.
 - b. Second occurrence will result in a written reprimand being filed with the club Secretary.
 - c. Third occurrence will result in loss of membership for one year. Dues will not be refunded. Reinstatement will require the submission of a new application, and a majority vote in favor of reinstatement by the general membership at the first monthly meeting following the one-year suspension where a quorum is present.
 - d. Members who have been found guilty of violating club rules will have the record of violations removed from their records if they have not been found guilty of a violation for a period of one-year following the date of the most recent violation.

- Section D. Committees

Field Committee

The Field Committee will maintain the flying field grass, make provisions for items required to provide proper maintenance of the runways and pit areas, and strive to assure that the facilities meet the needs of all types and sizes of aircraft using the facilities.

1. The chairman of the Filed Committee shall be the Vice President. The committee will consist of eight members who are selected by the chairman and appointed by the President for, but not limited to a term of one year.
2. The chairman's duties include:
 - a. Providing an annual budget for maintenance of the flying field (excluding the outlying areas, which will be handled by the tractor committee).
 - b. Providing an annual schedule of grass cutting assignments to the committee members.
 - c. Approving all budgeted expenditures of the field and tractor committee prior to payment.
 - d. Planning and scheduling of all items required to properly maintain the runways and pit areas.
 - e. He will monitor the performance of committee members and add or remove members as required to insure that each member provides adequate service.

Tractor Committee

The Tractor Committee will be responsible for all items pertaining to the tractor, including maintenance and upkeep.

1. The President will appoint the chairman of the Tractor Committee. The committee will consist of an additional member who is selected by the chairman and appointed by the President for, but not limited to a term of one year.
2. The Chairman's duties include:
 - a. Provide an annual schedule of grass cutting assignments to the Field Committee members.
 - b. Train Field Committee members on the operation of the tractor.

- c. Approve all requisitions for parts or repairs and present them to the Treasurer.

Article VI Amendments

Section A. Amendments to this Constitution, Field Rules or Safety Rules may be made at a regular or at a called club meeting, provided that all members have been notified of the proposed amendment(s) at least one week in advance of the meeting at which the amendment(s) will be considered.

Section B. Amendments must be approved by a 2/3 vote of a quorum as defined in Article III, Section C.

Article VII Dissolution

Section A. The existence of the Beaumont Radio Control Club is considered perpetual for all practical purposes. However, should circumstances that surround the hobby or this club change in such a way that dissolution of the club becomes inevitable and/or desirable; it will be carried out in the following manner:

1. A decision to dissolve the club will be made under the guidelines as the amendment procedure, Article V.
2. All assets of the club will be distributed to all members in good standing of record as of the date of the deciding vote in the following manner:
 - a. Assets (other than cash) will be valued at a fair value by club members.
 - b. Distribution to each member will be prorated based on the number of years in good standing.